CODE OF CONDUCT

A Code of Conduct is a collection of rules and regulations that include what is and is not acceptable or expected behavior. The Events Industry Council has offered guidelines outlining steps that can be implemented to provide as safe an environment as possible when meeting in person.

Responsibility is shared equally among event organizers, venues, suppliers and attendees. We all have a role to play in the mitigation of risk. By adhering to the code of conduct below, we are advocating for the well-being of our fellow citizens, our members, our association and our industry.

Before Leaving Home

- Follow relevant guidance provided by CDC or your local health authority.
- Adhere to government-issued travel restrictions and guidance issued by the region you will be traveling to and the region you are traveling from.
- Evaluate your own health and that of people you are in close contact with; contact the NAFD if you have concerns.
- Stay home if you feel sick.

On-Site During Event

- Follow guidance from your local health authority on how to help prevent the spread of respiratory viruses including:
- Washing hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds or use an alcohol-based sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol.
- Avoid touching eyes, nose and mouth with unwashed hands.
- Cover your nose and mouth when coughing or sneezing, and dispose of used tissues in a trash can.
- Clean and disinfect frequently touched objects and surfaces using a household cleaning spray or wipe.
- Agree to have your temperature taken before entering the meeting/event venue.
- Agree to wear a mask or facial covering, over both mouth and nose, as required by the event organizers and venue.
- Adhere to social distance protocols put in place by the event organizers, and respect other's personal space.
- Go to the event's registration desk and report if you feel unwell or are experiencing flu-like symptoms.

Post-Event

Based on current contact-tracing advice from many health authorities, if you test positive for COVID-19 up to 14 days after returning home, please notify the NAFD.
